THE MOUNTAIN:

Nestled 7,000 feet high in the Colorado Rockies, Steamboat also called Ski Town, USA®, is one of North America's largest ski mountains. Steamboat has something for everyone!

- Nearly 3000 acres of skiable terrain, which includes 1,800 acres of their legendary tree skiing, 375 acres of groomed terrain daily, and a vertical drop of 3,668 feet down 165 trails.
- Its six peaks are filled with world-class groomed cruisers, bumps, steeps, open meadows, legendary tree skiing, and North America's longest half-pipe within the acclaimed Mavericks Terrain Park.
- Mountain Stats: 343 inches of annual snowfall; top elevation 10568 feet, base 6900 feet; trails 14% beginner, 42% intermediate, 44% advanced.

LODGING: The Lodge at Steamboat

- Approximate distance to the ski area: 200 yards.
- The Lodge sits comfortably at the base of the mountain, only 200 yards from the Gondola, shopping, nightlife and many of the area's most popular restaurants.
- The Lodge offers its own private shuttle service that operates from 8:00 am to midnight, with service to the Gondola, Ski Time Square, downtown Steamboat Springs and the grocery store.
- In addition, The Lodge has a twenty-four hour front desk, wireless internet service, business center, switchboard, a guest services/concierge desk, daily housekeeping, an outdoor heated pool, 4 outdoor hot tubs, 1 indoor hot tub and sauna.
- Conveniently located next to La Montana & The Market on the Mountain, the Lodge at Steamboat is the perfect choice.
